

Through the Eyes of a Child: Understanding those Affected by FASD and other Non-responsive Behavioural Disorders

with Donna Debolt, Alberta Fetal Alcohol
Spectrum Disorder Specialist

Thursday, November 20th from 7 to 9 p.m.

Peterborough Public Library

345 Aylmer St. N.

Free • Everyone is Welcome to Attend

For more information:

705-742-3803/1-800-386-6561

Eighty percent of children with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) live in the care of others -- be it foster parents, grandparents or adoptive parents. How can we help? Donna Debolt says that because of the invisibility of FASD, there is a vicious cycle of not serving families and caregivers appropriately. In this interactive workshop, Donna will offer the tools and advice that parents and caregivers need.

