Time:	9:45 a.m. – 10:45 a.m.
Location:	Holy Trinity Catholic Secondary School, 2260 Courtice Road, Courtice
Release	At Will

Holy Trinity Catholic Secondary School in Courtice is pleased to be hosting an ‘All Candidates Forum’ on Wednesday, October 6, 2010 from 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.

Clarington’s four mayoral candidates, Jim Abernethy, Paul Adams, Adrian Foster, and Jeremy Woodcock have been invited to attend. Grade 12 students in Holy Trinity’s Canadian and World Politics class have organized the forum and will present questions relating to issues that are important to youth. Each of the municipal candidates will have an opportunity to respond to the student-generated questions.

This all candidates forum is one of the events leading up to the Holy Trinity Catholic Secondary Student Vote election being held later in October. All grade 10 students will be participating in a mock municipal election. Student Vote is a non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to educating students in understanding the election process, discovering the issues and learning firsthand how to vote - and why it matters.
